FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Iris Thomas elected to PPC Board of Directors

Plymouth, MA, August 29, 2013 - CDF Corporation, a leading manufacturer of drum, pail, intermediate bulk container and bag in box liners and flexible packaging, is proud to announce the election of Iris Thomas, Cheertainer bag-in-box Product Manager, to the Petroleum Packaging Council's Board of Directors.

Iris was chosen by the Nominating Committee and voted in by the membership at the August 19th Opening Session of the Petroleum Packaging Council Fall Meeting. Her term runs for three years with the option to renew for another three years. As a Director, Mrs. Thomas will meet with the Board of Directors six to seven times a year to supervise, control and direct the affairs of the association; determine the association's policies within the limits of the bylaws or laws affecting PPC; actively pursue the association's purposes; and have discretion in the disbursement of the association's funds. Iris has been an Associate Member of the PPC since 2009 and has served on the Long Range Planning Committee and as Chair of the Packaging Committee.

The Petroleum Packaging Council is an association providing technical leadership and education to the petroleum packaging and blending industry. It is international in scope and includes packaging from the receipt of materials through the manufacturing process and to the end consumer.

For six decades, the Petroleum Packaging Council has served petroleum packaging professionals exclusively as their premiere technical trade association. PPC is committed to the continual improvement of its services to its members and to promoting technical superiority to its industry.
