FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CDF Speaks at Petroleum Packaging Council Fall Meeting

Plymouth, MA, July 12, 2016 - CDF Corporation, a leading manufacturer of drum, pail, intermediate bulk container and bag in box liners and flexible packaging, will be presenting “Flexible Bag-in-Box” at the Petroleum Packaging Council 2016 Fall Meeting.

The CDF speech “Flexible Bag-in-Box” will cover the different types of packaging: rigid, semi-rigid, flexible; why a company chooses flexible packaging, flexible packaging benefits and what to consider when making the transition to flexible packaging.

Representing CDF Corporation will be Iris Thomas, National Sales and Business Development Manager, Flexible Packaging. Iris was responsible for the introduction of the flexible form-fit bag into the North American market. Her goal is to increase awareness of the benefits of flexible packaging. Iris is working closely with the petroleum, chemical and beverage markets.

Iris is active member of the Petroleum Packaging Council. She served as a Chair of the Packaging Committee and a member of the Long Range Planning Committee. She is currently a member of the Board of Directors.

The Petroleum Packaging Council Fall Meeting will be held August 14th-16th at the Inn and Spa at Loretto in Santa Fe, New Mexico. The Petroleum Packaging Council (PPC) provides technical leadership and education to the petroleum packaging industry, while providing a forum where members can exchange pertinent information for the betterment of the industry and the world we live in. This is done via lectures, seminars, training courses, supplier trade shows and general discussions. www.ppcouncil.org
